

AMERICAN ASTRONOMICAL SOCIETY

This agreement must be electronically signed before the American Astronomical Society (AAS) can publish your paper. In the event the article is not judged acceptable for publication in the journal you will be notified in writing and the copyright and all rights conferred by this agreement shall revert to you.

PUBLICATION AND TRANSFER OF COPYRIGHT AGREEMENT Manuscript number: AAS15852

Article title: Evidence for a Rotational Component in the CGM of Nearby Galaxies

Names of authors: David French Bart Wakker

Author Rights: AAS grants to the author(s) (or their below-named employers, in the case of works made for hire) the following rights. All copies of the Article made under any of these rights shall include notice of the AAS copyright.

(1) All proprietary and statutory rights other than copyright, such as patent rights.

(2) The right after publication by the AAS to grant or refuse permission to third parties to republish all or part of the Article or a translation thereof. In the case of whole articles only, third parties must first obtain permission from the AAS before any right of further publication is granted. The AAS may choose to publish an abstract or portions of the Article before the AAS publishes it in a journal.

(3) The right to use all or part of the Article in future works and derivative works of their own of any type, and to make copies of all or part of the Article for the authors' use for educational or research purposes.

(4) In the case of a work made for hire, the right of the employer to make copies of the Article for the employer's internal use, but not for resale.

(5) In the case of a Gold Open Access work, each of the named authors and, where relevant, the employer consents to the publication of the work under the Creative Commons Attribution 3.0 license (<https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/3.0/>) or any successor to that license.

Copyright Assignment: Copyright in the Article is hereby transferred to the AAS for the full term of copyright throughout the world, effective as of date of acceptance of the Article for publication in a journal of the AAS. The copyright consists of all rights protected by copyright laws of the United States and of all foreign countries, in all languages and forms of communication, and includes all material to be published as part of the Article in any format or medium. The AAS shall have the right to register copyright to the Article in its name as claimant, whether separately or as part of the journal issue or other medium in which the Article is included and the right to sue, counterclaim, and recover for past, present and future infringement of the rights assigned under this agreement.

This Agreement shall be controlled, construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the District of Columbia without reference to the conflict of laws provisions thereof. The Parties consent to jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in the District of Columbia in connection with any proceeding related to this Agreement or its enforcement.
